

Craig Corbett holds the position of Chief Operating Officer at MGCM, located in Gauteng. His educational background, career path, and aspirations are all deeply rooted in the Golf Course Maintenance industry.

Craig underwent his academic journey at Pennsylvania State University in the USA, where he obtained Golf Course Turf Grass Management Certification. With a remarkable span of over 18 years, he has honed his skills as a versatile and dynamic professional in operational and project management roles. Throughout his career, Craig has amassed experience in overseeing active management and coordinating projects within the Golf Course Maintenance, Construction, and Renovation sector.

"NORMAL
IS EXTINCT"

