

Goitse Diale's career started with his training for his private pilot's license and then transition to more administrative roles. Goitse is a holder of SACAA pilots license and has flown multiple aircraft across Southern Africa. Most notably flying feature aircrafts and demonstrations for Sling Aircraft (Southern Africa general aviation company). Goitse has had the privilege of working with multiple aviation brands and business which have played a significant role in shaping him, brands such as Question Bank, Status Aviation, Sling Aircraft, Swift Flite, Lux Aviation and Cemair.

Various work experience from flight school flight operations, airline dispatch and operations and private air charter operations. Currently, Goitse is the co-founder and CEO of Fly Urefu (oo-ref-oo), a Johannesburg-based Aviation Tech and Private Air Charter company specializing in on-demand private air charter services across Africa.

"NORMAL
IS EXTINCT"

