

Mpumelelo Tholumusa Manyathi is a multi-talented individual who has pursued two passions throughout his career: Weather forecasting and Choral conducting. With an honours degree in meteorology and a post-graduate certificate in Weather Forecasting, Mpumelelo has become a trusted voice in weather forecasting and broadcasting by the South African Broadcasting Corporation (SABC), providing accurate and timely information to help people better prepare for the significant weather events. In addition to his work in meteorology, Mpumelelo is also an accomplished choral conductor, having led numerous university and high school choirs in performances across the world. He also specialises in working with international choirs and publishes with Walton Music in the United States. His passion for music and commitment to excellence has earned him a reputation as a skilled and inspiring conductor.
