

Olwethu Hugo is a passionate teacher who has worked in the public and private education sectors gaining experience from Khayelitsha at the Manyano High School to Michaelhouse in the KwaZulu Natal Midlands. He recently earned a School Management and Leadership Certificate from the Harvard School of Education Online.

He sees relationships and the ability to use them as drivers of growth and development for boys both inside and outside the classroom. He is presently a housemaster in the pastoral care team at St Peter's Boys Preparatory School. He also teaches the diversity and belonging curriculum and is a high-performance rugby coach.

"NORMAL
IS EXTINCT"

