

Paul Nyamuda, a recognised expert in leadership, personal mastery and emotional intelligence, owns Corporate Legends, a company specialising in training.

As an Organisational Psychologist, he has conducted extensive research into leadership development and personal success, living his passion for "unlocking greatness in individuals, teams and organisations" through leadership development, emotional intelligence and personal mastery.

Since 2000 he has focused on executive coaching, team interventions and leadership development from middle management to CEO level for Blue Chip companies, leading banks, NPOs, Government departments, churches and large multinationals.

He is an associate lecturer at several business schools and has run popular management development courses for many years.

"NORMAL IS EXTINCT"

More recently, he has developed an online video-based learning platform that many professionals benefit from (courses.paulnyamuda.com).

Paul has spoken on leadership and related issues in South Africa, Swaziland, Zimbabwe, Mozambique, Zambia, DR Congo, Kenya, Nigeria, Egypt, the UK and the USA. He has authored 49 books on leadership, marriage, and related topics and has spoken about leadership issues on national radio and TV.

As Senior Pastor and Founder of Go Christian Church in Centurion, and hosts retreats, marriage breakfasts and the programme "Saving Our Marriage "on SABC3.

"NORMAL
IS EXTINCT"

